WACs 314-16-160 (retail licensees); 314-20-090 (beer wholesalers); and 314-24-170 (wine wholesalers) were amended to notify retail licensees that failure to keep accurate accounting records which result in an extension of credit because a prior cash deposit is overextended may result in administrative action by the Board against the licensee.

WAC 314-16-250 is a new regulation adopted to implement the new keg registration law. The regulation sets out the form of the declaration and receipt to be signed by the purchaser of the keg, and requires that the declaration, in the form of stickers (provided by the Board to the licensee), be affixed to the keg.

WAC 314-18-030 providing exceptions to when banquet permits are required, was amended to clarify that a banquet permit is not required for beer or wine provided by a brewery, winery, or wholesaler for a course of instruction held pursuant to RCW 66.28.150.

WACs 314-20-020 (beer labels) and 314-24-040 (wine labels) were amended to modify the documentation required to be submitted with an application for label approval, and to eliminate the automated requirement that product samples and a $5.00 chemical analysis fee be submitted with the request for label approval. The samples must now be provided only upon request of the Board.

WAC 314-20-030 was amended to allow a brewery with Class H privileges to dispense beer directly from its tanks to the Class H area, with permission from the Board, and to require that the net contents of individual containers be stated on the outside of any multi-container package where the individual container label or bottle size is not visible to the consumer.

WAC 314-26-010 was amended to require advance notice to the Board before destruction of unsalable product and to specify the information required to be submitted to the Board with an application for refund of taxes. The form of the certificate is set out in the regulation.

WAC 314-30-010 is a new regulation governing sales within the state by manufacturers licensed under RCW 66.24.150. The regulation provides that the first wine wholesaler or certificate of approval holder receiving the product from a distiller, rectifier or bottler is liable for the taxes due. Manufacturers who sell to wholesalers or certificate of approval holders must also file monthly reports with the Board, detailing their shipping activity during the preceding month.

WAC 314-44-005, governing the issuance of an agent's license, was amended to allow agents to deliver and set up point of purchase displays in state liquor stores, where the consumer offer or display material has been approved by the Board.

WAC 314-60-030 was amended to correct a spelling error and reflect that enforcement offices of the Board are maintained in
